June 27, 1925 - September 14, 2010

ROBERT LEE HALL, the son of the late King David and laddie Hall was born in Blackstock, South Carolina on June 27, 1925. he was the thirteenth of sixteen children. Twelve siblings preceded him in death. Also preceding him in death was a dear friend the late Mable Wilkins and a loyal son-in-law the Walter Peoples. Robert lee departed this life on September 14, 2010 after a lengthy illness.

He was educated in the South Carolina Public School System. Robert Lee worked 30 years as a fork-lift operator for Frank A. Serio and Sons, a company in Jessup Maryland.

“ Luke” as he was affectionately known, suffered a severe aneurysm in 1989. His courage and determination to regain his health throughout the family. Although his recovery was remarkable he was left with limitations. Marilyn “ Rene” with the aide of her husband Walter, was dedicated to making sure Luke remained mobile and able to visit family and friends

Luke was reserved but loved to watch and talk about his favorite old TV westerns. To his family, Luke was a generous person who did not hesitate to help them and anyone else in need. Although quiet, he was wise and witty and often gave advise to others , especially his brothers.

He leaves to mourn: two daughters, Marilyn Peoples and Wayna Robinson; two sisters, Sallie J. Hill and Willie B. Peterson (his twin); one brother Hezekiah hall; eleven grandchildren, James Jr., Yvette, Keith, Tischa, Tanica, Latavia, Latischa, Shadonna, Dontrae, Jordan, and Teyona; one great grandchild, LaToya; two great great grandchildren, Breasia and Kamori and a host of other relatives and friends.
