

Robert D. Harper

June 10, 1994 - January 10, 2022

Robert Deonta Harper, son of Robert Harper Sr. and Lakesha Russell, Nurture Parent (Rhonda Williams) was born on June 10, 1994 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed from this life on January 10, 2022.

Robert was educated in the Baltimore City/County School System, and later attended Fairmount Hartford Institute to obtain his GED. By the Grace of GOD, Robert was Baptized at Highway to Heaven Church located at 1650 Patterson Park, where he loved working with the Pastor.

Robert was very ambitious and loved to work. He was employed as a Construction Tech and also worked for Safe Streets. Robert was very caring and loved helping others any way he could. At a younger age, Robert loved going to see the Monster Trucks with his dad and riding dirt bikes, sitting up watching movies and eating junk food with his Aunt Teresa (Aunt Goodies) who preceded him in death. Big Bob, as he was called by family and friends, loved to laugh and have a good time. He'd always tell his brothers to stop being so serious and have fun. Robert enjoyed family and spending time with them, playing video games with Darhon, rapping and free-styling with Lil' Rob and Jemar, cracking jokes with little brother, Deonta (Tay Tay) whom he was adamant about being named after him, staying up late playing Grand Theft Auto, teaching Jae'lah how to ride a bike and cook for her, lying about him being a chef, and hanging out with cousins Tony and Remone, chilling and relaxing having nice conversations. He loved telling James, Jeremiah and Lolah about all the current events going on in his life and didn't sugar coat one story.

Big Rob loved playing baseball, watching movies, paint ball, family dinners, cookouts, animals, and holidays. Being a jokestar and agitator was one of the highlights of his life especially when it came down to plucking his brothers' Lil' Rob, Darhon, Jemar, Big sister Keya and his cousin, Tyikia's last nerve...he found it very funny too. His children, Trezoe, Tristan and Messiah were at the front of his heart. Big Rob loved and adored them. He spent time spoiling them with love, affection and as much candy as they desired. Robert always spoke of getting back on track and taking a vacation with all his children. He will be truly missed by all his family and friends.

Big Robert leaves to cherish his memories: his parents, Robert Harper Sr. and Rhonda Williams; mother, Lakesha Russell (Roosevelt Holmes); ten brothers; Robert Jr., Darhon, Jemar, Deonta, Damon, James, Jeremiah, Demond, Kavon, and Tavon; seven sisters, Keya, Jae'lah, Lolah, Sherelle, Tanajah, Katina, and Tamira; grandmothers, Rosa Harper and Patricia Lee (preceded in death), Sheila Ballard and Rustina Russell; great-great aunt, Frances Harper; aunts, Teresa Harper (preceded in death) Regina Harper (John), Anna Harper, Francine Harper, Deitra, Jacquetta, Lokia, and Monique; uncles, James (Katie), Clayton, David, and Dwayne; three special cousins Ronnie, Remone and Tony; two cousin-like sisters, Tyikia and Sherilli; one godmother, Shannon; three Loyal friends, Arnold, Devin, and Anthony; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“Baby bro...I know what you wanted out of life. Especially from the people you loved the most. I am so glad I was able to give you that and more. I have no regrets. I am so sorry this happened to you. I guess it's true that the good die young. Because you were more than good brother. I got your kids from this point forward. There Aunt Keya will stand there in your stead and ensure they know exactly who there daddy was. I love you so much baby. My A1 since D1!!

“ I met Rob in what we call "The Oaks" Robert was my next-door neighbor. He grew up with my daughters Kelsey and Chelsey and my Nieces Jada and Tori. Robert was well-loved by my family he was just a great kid. My favorite memory of Robert was the entire time being next-door neighbors. I would hear him make beats against the walls with his fists and knuckles. Amazing beats to rock to. My favorite song of Robs was one of his last songs the words I remember are "I love my hater that's my song". On his IG, I love listening to him sing it. You are truly missed, Rob. Harper
