

Robert W. Jackson

August 19, 1951 - April 29, 2014

ROBERT W. JACKSON, the third of seven born to Faustina and the late William Jackson, was born August 19th, 1951 in Monkton, Maryland. On Tuesday, April 29, Bobby peacefully slipped away to his heavenly home to join his brother Thomas Jackson.

He received his education in Harford County and Baltimore City public schools. Bobby was known as “Pimp” to his former co-workers at Atlas and Mayflower Movers. For a tall, slim-framed man, he sure could pack a home and move office furniture with no hassle. He was an affectionate, respectful and loving man. He loved his mother dearly. He would call her every two weeks to check on her. Anyone who knew Bobby knew he was a very fashionable man, who loved to look good to the tee and to smell even better. Bobby was really good friends with Mr. Lewis who he traveled to various cities with. Bobby had a great sense of humor and will always be remembered for his silly comments to everything.

Bobby never called his sisters by their name, just Sis, because he barely would remember anyone’s name, or he’d call you whatever he wanted. Bobby accepted God through our Lord Jesus Christ with Pastor Richard Dickens at his bedside at Johns Hopkins Hospital on Saturday, April 26, 2014. To God be the glory.

He leaves to mourn: his mother, Faustina Jackson; his beloved partner of thirty years, Linda Davis; her daughter, Demetria Davis; granddaughter, Brea; and great-grandson Kayden; three sisters, Betty Lou Jackson-Thomas, Carol Jackson, Katherine Hilton; two brothers, William and Dennis Jackson; brother-in-law, Morgan Hilton; two aunts, Jane Jones and Agnes Ellis; two great-aunts, Florence Koger and Eleanor Chapman; great-uncle, Montgomery Thomas; nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

AFTER GLOW

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways of happy times and laughing times and bright, sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve to dry before the sun of happy memories that I leave when life is done.
