

Robert Lee Jennings

July 28, 1930 - October 1, 2017

ROBERT LEE JENNINGS, son of the late Freddie and Harriet Jennings, was born on July 28, 1930 in Crewe, Virginia. He departed this life on October 1, 2017 after a lengthy illness.

He received his education in the Virginia School System. At an early age, he met the love of his life, Daisy Rubin, They were married for 49 years until she preceded him in death on February 2, 1999. He was inducted into the United States Army on February 25, 1955, he moved to Baltimore, Maryland . He worked as a Laborer at Bethlehem Steel in Sparrows Point, Maryland until his retirement in 1985.

In 1967, he joined St. Paul Community Baptist Church under the leadership of Dr. Edward M. Revels and was ordained as a Deacon. He was a member of the Solid Rock Vocal Chior and the Male Chorus. With a sincere heart, Robert and the late James Alston formed the Annuaul Church Give away. The charitable event has helped hundreds of people in need. Robert loved to cook, sing and tell stories about his childhood in Virginia. His favorite song was "Children Go Where I send Thee". He was an opinionated man who had no problem with telling you what's on his mind.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his brother, George Harris Jennings (Pat) of Pennsylvania; a devoted great nephew, Daniel Stokes of Baltimore, Maryland;

a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and the residents and staff of Brinton Woods Post-Acute Care.
