

Robert Louis Johnson Sr

July 3, 1954 - July 30, 2022

Our beloved Robert Louis Johnson, the eldest son of the late Idella Johnson Boone and Henry Morton was born Saturday July 3, 1954 in Baltimore Md. Early Saturday morning on July 30, 2022, Robert heard the Lord say “You have fought a good fight, now enter into your rest. Welcome Home”

Robert’s early education was in the Baltimore City public school system. He later left as a teenager and joined the Job Corp located in beautiful Montana. He also attended trade school for engineering. Over the years Robert worked various jobs and made a career working at Artemis Properties, a job that gave him fulfillment as chief engineer.

A man of many talents Robert was a Martial Arts Instructor (with a black belt). He spent many hours reading his bible, watching movies and listening to all genres of music. His passion was exercising and keeping his body mentally and physically fit. Robert would tell such bad corny jokes that you couldn’t stop laughing at him and with him.

In 2003 Robert met the lovely Ruthie Myers, fell in love and they made a commitment to each other. On Monday, May 23, 2016 Robert and Ruthie professed their love to the world by joining together in holy matrimony. Praise the Lord!

Robert was known as a man of strength, a stern devoted father, a fierce protector who would do anything for his family and love ones.

Robert was preceded in death by his parents: Idella Johnson Boone and Henry Morton; brother Edward Johnson.
