A life touched by God always ends in touching others.

Robert Caruso Keeton, 89, known as “Boozie” was born August 29, 1923 to Norman Lee Keeton, Sr. and Maggie Keeton in Lanexa, Virginia. He was called home to be with his heavenly father on August 11, 2013. He was preceded in death by his wife, Mable H. Keeton.

He enlisted in the United States Army and received an honorable discharge. He served in WWII during his service. He later worked for E. I. du Pont de Nemours and Company as a machine operator. Boozie retired in 1981 after 30 years of dedicated service.

He married the love of his life, Mable H. Keeton in 1947. Boozie attended Ebenzeer Baptist Church in Lanexa, Virginia, where he received his spiritual guidance.

Boozie touched everyone in a unique kind of way. If you met him you would remember his special spirit. He will always be remembered as a loving and devoted father, grandfather and special friend to many. He was the backbone, the strength, and the light of his family. Boozie loved life and gave love to everyone around him. He will be greatly missed, and his impact will be felt by the many lives he touched.

Boozie leaves to cherish his loving memory a daughter, Darinka Keeton; three sons, Xavier C. (Maxine), Romulo C. Keeton and Dana Hogan; 15 grandchildren, 10 great-grandchildren; one sister-in-law, Edith Macklin; a devoted cousin, Ruby Williams, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I did not know him personally but I knew some of his family members. Dear family, friends, and all who are mourning at this time I extend to you my deepest sympathy. It is so sad to loose a family member at any age. Life is such a wonderful gift and when it ceases it often fill us with sadness. Death had a sad beginning in human histroy when adam and Eve chose to ignore the warning of Almighty God. It is good to know that it is not necessarily a permanent condition. Jesus who was a perfect man like Adam came to buy back what Adam gave away and that was the prospect of endless life. John 3:16 states that God so love.....his son.....may have everlasting life. This is going to be a very happy time in the very near future because those who are now asleep in death will hear Almighty God's voice and come out of the graves. (John 5:28,29). When you are sadden and feeling a little low, look to Almighty God words and feel a glow, Know that he is resting for a short while, and when is comes to life again he will wear a smile. Think of the joy and the happiness you will feel realizing that everlasting life is ever so real.

“ Our heartfelt condolences to the family of Robert Caruso Keeton. Words cannot express the pain we feel when we lose our dear loved ones. Our prayer is that you may find comfort through God’s Word, the Bible. Isaiah 25:8 tells us: “He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces.” May you be strengthened and comforted during this time of loss.

“ I’m so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I’m truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I’m sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

Gone but never forgotten. May the memories of your dad, bring a smile to your face for years to come. The body may not be present but the soul lives within. Trust in God's hand to hold and comfort you through your time of grievance.

Psalm 147:3 says, He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds.
