

Robert L. Queen

January 6, 1929 - November 23, 2001

Robert L. Queen, son of the late Harry Queen and Maggie Queen, was born on January 6, 1929. He departed this life on Friday, November 23, 2001 after a brief illness. Robert gave his life to Christ at an early age. He attended Apostolic Faith Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Bishop Showell. In later years, he became a member of the cornerstone Baptist Church. He received his education in Baltimore City public schools. He enjoyed working as a custodian for many years. He also worked at Second Time Around Stores. Robert was famous for collecting family pictures. He enjoyed listening to 1400 gospel station and called in to pray for himself, his family and his friends. So, when you hear gospel stations, remember Robert. "I am going home to be with my Lord," he'd always say, "If the Lord comes for me, I am ready," and he was with his arms wide open. Robert leaves to cherish his memory: three brothers, John Queen, Walter Queen and Andrew Queen; two sisters, Dorothy Queen and Mabel Mason; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ *Dearest Family,
My heartfelt condolences to your family on the loss of your loved one. During this difficult time may you draw comfort from God's word the Bible. Almighty God Jehovah has a yearning to undue all that death has caused. (Job 14:14,15), Soon all those who are in His memory will live again by means of a resurrection to life right here on this cleansed earth. (John 5:28,29 & Psalm 37:11,29). May you have the utmost confidence in all that God promises.*
