

Robert William Lance

August 15, 1967 - November 4, 2016

Robert William Lance was born August 15, 1967 to the late Catherine Clayton and William Lance Sr.

Robert was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. He worked for Baltimore City Department of Sanitation for over twenty years before retiring.

Robert was a very talented artist and avid collector of comics, specifically anything Batman. He will always be remembered for the love he had for family and friends.

He will be adored and sorely missed by his father, grandfather, godmother, brothers, sisters, aunts, uncles, cousins and many other family members and friends that are his extended family.

Bobby, we miss you already.
