“ So very sorry to read of the death of your loved one. May you have peace and comfort from our heavenly father. It's so very wonderful to know that death will not forever stalk us or our loved ones. God has a wonderful purpose to end all sickness and death in the world. Isaiah 33:24 says that one day no resident will say "I am sick". When Jesus raised Lazarus back to life after being dead for 4 days, he was demonstrating what he will do for all of our dead loved ones in the near future. I hope these promises of God bring you some hope and comfort. Take care.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. It is truly unfortunate that at times we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. Soon we will not have to feel such grief. Isaiah 25:8,9 tells us that God will "actually swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord will certainly wipe the tears from all faces..." At Acts 24:15 God has also given us the hope of a resurrection for those who have fallen asleep in death. May you find comfort from these wonderful promises that will soon be fulfilled.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“Death is a harsh and devastating interruption to life a precious gift of God. Yet in most of our lives today we see death as our final eventuality accepted by many. However our heavenly father Jehovah God, the giver of life promises that one day in our near future death will be no more. As Revelations 21:3-4 states “God will wipe every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor out cry nor pain be anymore.” How truly happy we all will be not to ever be threaten by death because it is Jehovah God’s promise to us according to Psalms 37:29 for the righteous ones to live forever on earth. Another hopeful awaiting thought in our future is all those who have lost their lives to death or the lost of our love ones, Jehovah God says according to John 5:28,29 all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus voice and come out. Yes these ones will live again! We all can hold fast to this because Titus 1:2 states: upon the basis of hope of everlasting life, which God, who cannot lie promised before times long lasting. Such a comforting thought to know our having life forever was always Jehovah God’s promised purpose for us. My deepest sympathy to the family.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy to Mr. Robert Baul's family and friends. We have a hope like that of Abraham who reckoned that Jehovah was able to restore to life his son Isaac. (Hebrew 11:17-19) Jesus helps us to see that the hope of bringing back to life deceased loved ones is a reality, for he said that "...all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." (John 5:28,29) Confidence in this resurrection can aid and protect us from unrelenting sorrow. The hope of seeing Mr. Robert Baul again can surpass any temporary pain. The thing of greatest concern now is, what must I do, so as to put myself in line for everlasting life. John 17:3 is a must.
Respectfully, A. James###imported-begin###A. James###imported-end##

“ To the family of Robert Lee he will truly be missed he was my next door neighbor on Lorman Street and I will always remember those rolls and bread he would always give my family. He gave me my first job at age 14 cleaning his house. I remember the late nights he would sit on the steps with my dad and listen to the ball game on the radio. I always called him my God Father. Robert I will miss you so much but I know you are in a much better place. God Bless the Baul Family. You had a wonderful Dad.###imported-begin###Darlene###imported-end##
