“ Please accept my sincere and heartfelt sympathy for your loss. It is so heartbreaking when we lose someone we love in death, and God never meant for us to experience this pain and sorrow. He wanted the best for us, and gave mankind a wonderful start in the Garden of Eden; a paradise of pleasure. The bible lets us know that his purpose has not changed, and one day soon this world will once again be a paradise, and such sad things as violence, poverty, sickness, and death will be a thing of the past. Isaiah 65:17 makes this wonderful promise from Jehovah: "For here I am creating new heavens and a new earth, and the former things will not be called to mind; neither will they come up into the heart." Even the dead will share in these blessings, because John 5:28,29 says that the dead will hear Jesus's voice and come out of the memorial tombs; those who practiced good things to a resurrection of life." May those thoughts bring much comfort to your hearts, and help you to cope with your loss.##imported-begin##R JOHNSON##imported-end##

“ Poem of Life -Author unknown Life is but a stopping place, A pause in what's to be, A resting place along the road, to sweet eternity. We all have different journeys, Different paths along the way, We all were meant to learn some things, but never meant to stay... Our destination is a place, Far greater than we know. For some the journey's quicker, For some the journey's slow. And when the journey finally ends, We'll claim a great reward, And find an everlasting peace, Together with the Lord. Our prayers are with your family during this difficult time. Stephanie C Lansey, Pearlette Anderson-Lansey and Justin S Anderson##imported-begin##SC Lansey##imported-end##
