

Robert Edward Lee

January 24, 1946 - May 18, 2011

Robert Edward Lee, the son of the late Raymond Davis and Maydell Lee was born in Richmond, Virginia on January 24, 1946. He's preceded in death by his sister Emma Crews and brother Thomas Lee, Jr. Robert was educated in Richmond Public School System, and a former employee of the American Tobacco Company. Robert was joined in holy matrimony to Irma Otey. They were blessed with two sons, Derrick Edward and Damond Lee (deceased).

Robert was a friendly and loveable person. He loved being around family and friends. There is nothing more that Robert loved to do than dance. When his wife would return to her seat, he would remain on the dance floor. He would dance the night away until he would be the last one on the floor. Being a die hard Dallas Cowboy fan, Robert rooted his team on while wearing all his paraphernalia, even during his sickness. During his long battle of illness, Robert stayed strong, determined, and full of faith. He lost his battle and entered into eternal rest on Wednesday, May 18, 2011.

He leaves to cherish his memory, a devoted and loving wife, Irma Otey Lee; son Derrick Edward Lee; four brothers, Jethro, Clarence, Chastine and Persey Lee; two sisters, Delores Lee and Thomasine Sturtevant (Edward); devoted mother-in-law, Deaconess Hazel B. Otey; brothers-in-law, James Crews, Mansfield Otey (Elizabeth), Kenneth Otey (Leola Gaston), Al Otey (Winifred); sisters-in-law, Catherine Lee and Glennis Wyatt (Jimmy); devoted caregivers, Nadine Marriot and Esther Hill, a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.

“ Although I didn't know Robert, I wanted to send you my condolences. As humans, we grieve over the death of a loved one; that's normal, because we know Jesus gave way to tears (John 11:35) after the death of his close friend Lazarus. He demonstrated what resurrection will mean for mankind; in John 11:11, 14-44, "Jesus said to his disciples, 'Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from sleep.' Luke 23:43 provides us the hope for paradise here on earth, because Jesus stated, "Truly I tell you today, YOU will be with me in Paradise." Jesus statement meant that "All the earth will be transformed back into a paradise under the rule of Christ as King! 1 Thessalonians 4:13 Paul instructs us to not be ignorant concerning those who are sleep (in death); This hope Paul mentions is the hope for the restored Paradise on Earth, as Jehovah God had originally created for all of mankind to enjoy. I hope the words in this letter provide comfort for your family, because as long as you serve God wholeheartedly, you will see Robert again!

“ To the family of Richard Edward Lee -

It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone you love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk to, laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. That pain is not necessarily erased by mere words that I express and others. It takes time and comfort from God's word the Bible.

The Bible holds a message of hope. It let us know that it is possible to be reunited with your dead loved one in the near future. And at that time humans will have the prospect of enjoying perfect health, and they will never have to die again. This is not wishful thinking! Jesus Christ boldly promised: "Just as the Father raises the dead up and makes them alive, so the Son also makes those alive whom he wants to. Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus'] voice and come out." (John 5:21, 28, 29)
