ROBERT LEWIS GIBSON, son of the late Henry Thomas and Della Lee Gibson, was born January 9, 1943 in Frederick, Maryland. He was known as "Bobby" to all his friends and family. He departed this life on November 15, 2002. Bobby met and married Joyce E. Gibson. He was educated in Frederick, Maryland public schools and was successful in attaining his General Education Diploma (G.E.D.) at Hagerstown Community College in July 1985. Bobby successfully established his career by working throughout his life for Breyers Ice Cream, The Davis Company/Staples, Radio Shack, Sealy Mattress, C. M. Offray and the time of his death, he was employed by Wollenweber Trucking Warehouse as a Fork Lift Driver. Bobby was blessed with a turning point in his life and became a success story, known as "Miracle on Carroll Street." Upon his successful graduation from "The Shelter Foundation", he became employed full time with benefits and had a commitment to owning his own home, being debt free and feeling good about himself. Bobby rededicated his life to the Lord, and often said he could never find the words to express his appreciation to everyone that helped him through recovery. Bobby was an ardent lover of music and loved to listen to "Oldies but Goodies" songs. His happy-go-lucky personality made him fun to be around. It was this fun-filled person that displayed to those around him a good heart, and would do anything he could to help anyone in need. After separating from his wife, Bobby met and committed himself to his loving and devoted friend and companion Marie A. Watford, who remained faithful, supportive and dedicated until his death. Their plans for their life together as soulmates was cut short, due to the Lord calling him home following a sudden and short illness. Bobby also leaves to cherish his memory: one son, Larry Wiles; a grandson, Jordan Lynn Wiles; and wife, Joyce E. Gibson; best friend, Michael Pompey; and a host of other relative and friends.
