“ I send my sincere sympathy to the family of Robert at this time. May the many expressions of comfort and love from those who care help you to cope with your sorrow, and may the precious memories shared with Robert over the years help to ease your pain. Keep in mind that we have a loving, heavenly father above who cares so much for us and comforts us when we are hurting. He makes this loving promise to us concerning our dead ones: From the hand of Sheol (the grave) I shall redeem them, from death I shall recover them, "Where are your stings, O Death? "Where is your destructiveness, O Sheol? Yes, with God, even death, cannot have a permanant hold on our loved ones. It is so comforting to know that Jehovah has a purpose to end sickness and death forever. So always lean on him for strength, and keep reading the scriptures, because you can derive much comfort from them.
