“ All of Bob's friends are grieving his early death and our great loss. He was a splendid fellow, boon companion and generous soul. His life of achievement, compassion, love and redemption is an example to us all. I hope that memories of his kind heart and fun-loving ways will console his family during their grief. “ The richness of the human experience is in what is handed down from one life to the next –not simple things of mortar and stone, but memories of what one said or felt or did. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
