

Robert Montgomery Bolden

September 23, 1949 - February 27, 2006

On February 27 2006, our hearts were saddened by the sudden passing of our beloved brother, ROBERT MONTGOMERY BOLDEN, born to the late Harry and Eleanor Bolden, was born here in Baltimore, Maryland on September 23rd, 1949. Robert attended public schools here in the city and after graduating high school, he was employed as a Carpenter, where his talents and craftsmanship became major components in many home throughout the area. Robert excelled with others who met him through his kindness and major efforts to help in any way he could. He was a very lovable person with a heart of gold. Always having a bright, jovial and welcoming smile whenever you saw him. Laughing was a big part of his personality. He always knew what to say and the right time to say it. If there was something he could do for you, he was always willing to do it. Robert worked within the community endeavoring to be a role model, steering others away from the troubled streets. He felt that if he just reached at least one person, then his efforts were not in vain. He leaves to cherish his memory, his two (2) children, Robert and Chiquita; six (6) brothers, Harry Bolden, Olivine Bolden, Charles Bolden, Hugh Bolden, William Bolden and Raymond Bolden; two (2) sisters, Hilda Parker and Patsy Jenkins and a host of nieces, nephews, grandchildren, in-laws and of course many friends.

“ Hello ! Bolden's ! May I take this opportunity to send my condolences to u all, the family and friends. When we lose a dear one in death it breaks the life circle. We were created to live forever however we are dying every day. Many wonder, WHY ? The bible holds the answer for us at Romans 5:12. The great Hope we have is found at Rev.21:3-5, where ALL things will be made New, no more pain, tears of sorrow, dying, the greatest news ever told. I am looking forward to that coming very soon and I know you are too. Mr. Robert was 58 when he died and had so much to live for. May all the cherished memories stay close to your heart as your family and friend keep supporting you all. My fellow feeling , Lillian Crosby.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. Mr. Bolden appears to have led a full and purposeful life. I am certain that Mr/ Bolden is missed by family, friends and all who knew him. Death takes these precious ones from us. The Bible tells us that death is the enemy, but we never get used to. However, the Bible gives us hope for a resurrection at John 5:28-29 where Jesus promises that, "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". This scripture has brought comfort to many. I hope that this will comfort you as well.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ I wish to extend my condolences on the recent death of your loved one. My heart goes out to you in your grief, because I know what it's like to lose someone so close to you. It's like an unreality knowing that you can't talk to or see that person anymore. But we can take comfort in the fact that Gods knows what we're going through more than anyone else, and he has promised to end death forever in the near future. At John5:28,29 the bible says "Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who practiced good things to a ressurection of life". I hope these words bring you comfort and hope as you await that glorious day when you can be with your loved again.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
