

Robert P. English

June 3, 1945 - July 1, 2003

Robert P. English, son of Mamie Woodard-English and the late Shedd Robert English, Sr., was born on June 3, 1945 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on July 1, 2003 after a lengthy illness. He received his education in Baltimore City schools. Teddy, as he was affectionately known by family and friends, was employed by a well-known Country Club until his illness. As a youth, Teddy was fun loving with a quiet sense of humor. Teddy enjoyed traveling. He never missed an opportunity to respond to bus trips. He also had a passion for politics and would work on various campaigns for humanitarian causes. He leaves to mourn: his mother Mamie Woodard-English; two sisters, Rosalie and Mary English of Baltimore, Maryland; a long time companion Tanya Morris; two uncles, George Bell of Rock Hill, South Carolina and Sam Sawyer of Baltimore, Maryland; three aunts, Ella Woodard of Blackstock, South Carolina, Rosalie Bell of Rock Hill, South Carolina and Julie Sawyer-English of Baltimore, Maryland; a host of other relatives and friends. His brother, Arthur English, preceded him in death.
