“ We moved to the neighborhood 10 years ago and Mr. Pete and Mrs. Vicki invited us to our 1st cookout in our new neighborhood. I am truly devastated but blessed to have known such a wonderful couple. My children still remember that day...thank you. I was talking to Pete just the other month about everything and I could sense that he missed his best friend. Now you all are together.

“ I met Pete a few years ago and our paths crossed at the pool once or twice a week. We enjoyed chatting with each other. Pete was so interesting and funny. There was always a big smile on his face. After a chat with Pete I always had a big smile on my face, too. He was a truly a good person, generous, kind and thoughtful. He absolutely adored Vickie and his family. My life is brighter for having known Pete. My sympathies to family and friends of this loss of a wonderful person gone far too soon.

“ In 1972, Pete was an Alexandria Police Officer who came to my 8th grade social studies class at Parker Gray at least once a week. He worked hard to bridge the wide gap between young people and the police during a turbulent time. I was inspired by him and others at the age of 14 to become an Alexandria Police Officer. In 2005 I retired from the APD after 27 years of service and currently serve as the Sheriff. I often talk about Pete and others such as Al Washington who knew what community policing was all about, way before anyone else could write a book about it. Today when I'm asked about police - community engagement, I tell people we need to do what Pete and others did. Get out of the office or car and go talk to the kids. Establish relationships. Treat people with respect at all times. Do not judge others. That's what Pete taught me 45 years ago.

“ Years and years ago Pete worked with socialized with my family and those we worked with on the Alexandria Police Department. I have fond and funny memories of those days. They seem like a life time ago. I guess now they are.

Rest in piece old friend.

“ From the Saint Paul's Baptist Church Genealogy Ministry (Richmond, Virginia)...words can't express our true sorrow for the Moss Family. Be strong and know that God has a way of healing our hurts in time. Family History was important to Pete and we pray that someone will pick up what he started and record the history of the Moss Family for future generations.

Dear Moss Family,

I was shocked and deeply saddened when I read about Pete's unexpected passing. He was a kind and gentle person. He always made me smile and of course gave out that caring hug.

We served together on the SPCF Scrip team at The Saint Paul's Baptist Church. We would always tease each other about us being the only ones who would wear our "Scrip Scarfs" on an almost regular basis 😊. I'll always wear my scarf in remembrance of you Pete!

Words can't express to the family my deepest and sincerest sympathy! Pete was loved by all who knew him and he'll be missed dearly! I know that you and your beloved wife are smiling in heaven and you're hugging her tightly like you used to do at church! Love you Pete and family! ❤️ 🙏 Tammy
