

Robert Henry Quarles Jr.

January 21, 1952 - March 1, 2011

ROBERT H. QUARLES, JR., son of Mary E. Quarles and the late Robert H. Quarles, Sr., was born on January 24, 1952 in Richmond, Virginia He suddenly departed this life on March 1, 2011.

Robert a.k.a. "Rob," received his education at Sparrows Point High School. After high school he joined the United States Navy. Upon completion of serving his country, he became a loyal employee of Spring Grove Hospital. In a matter of time he made a career change to professional Tractor Trailer Driver. Rob enjoyed photography and had a vast understanding of computers.

He married the former Sharron M. Morgan in 1990. After many years they decided to move to Austell, Georgia.

Rob had a smile that would brighten anyone heart. He loved a good laugh and always had something funny to say. He loved and cherished his children and grandchildren. Rob took many opportunities to share his wisdom with them.

Rob leaves to mourn: his wife, Sharron M. Quarles; three sons, Juan Quarles, Robert H. Quarles, Robert H. Quarles, III and Linard Cherry; three daughters, Robyn Smith, Channelle Quarles and Terquisha Cherry; thirteen grandchildren; his mother, Mary E. Quarles; three brothers, Zachery, Antonio and Micheal; three sister-in-law, seven brothers-in-law; a host of other relatives and friends, including his four legged companion, Cody.

“ *To Sharon and Tee,
So sorry for your loss!! I didn't really get to know Rob but I did through you'll. I'm sure he will be missed!! But remember the promise that is found at John 5:28, 29, Jesus said: "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." This means that all the dead in Sheol, our loved ones included, will come back to life. Acts 24:15 reveals more about this grand event, stating: "There is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." So even "the unrighteous," many individuals who did not know and serve Jehovah, will get a future opportunity to gain God's favor. Again so sorry for your loss!!*
