

Robert Reid

May 28, 1935 - December 3, 2001

Robert Reid, the beloved son of the late Rosa Rice Reid and John Reid was born on May 28, 1935 in Spartanburg County, South Carolina. He was one of eleven children. Robert departed this life on Monday, December 3, 2001 in Sinai Hospital after a long illness. Robert so fondly called "Bobby" Rosa Reids's baby boy, was educated in the public school system in Pacolet, SC. He came to Baltimore in 1951. As a young man he was a member of Gethsemane Baptist Church in Pacolet, SC. Bobby worked for Nate's and Leon for a long time, and later joined the staff of Catonsville Community college where he retired after 30 years of dedicated service. Robert married Minnie Louise and from this union there were four children, Ricky, Lena, Angelo, and Timothy. In addition, a daughter, Chante and one son, Albert who preceded him in death. Robert was member of "The Seminole Club" for many years. Bobby was a loving and caring person and everyone who came to know him came to love him. Bobby was truly a people person. When the Providence Baptist Church was being built at 1401 Pennsylvania Avenue he watched every brick go into the building and he would call his niece Geraldine to ask if Rev. Wood was aware of anything he thought didn't look right to him. Bobby was a great supporter of Providence Baptist Church though he never joined. Bobby leaves to cherish his memory; his wife, Minnie Louise Reid, two daughters, Lena Reid-Pittman and Chante Reid, three sons, Siegfried (Ricky), Angelo (Mainboy) and Timothy (Tim); three daughters-in-law, Dana, Sharon, and Jena; one son-in-law, Antonio Pittman; twelve grandchildren, Sierra,

Lucretia, Tierra, Briana, Shawnay, Jasmine, Little Jasmine, Jerome, Jaron, Timothy Jr., Te-on and Siegfried Jr., one aunt-in-law, Cattie Smith “Mom Mom”, four sisters, Mary Peeler of Bridgeport, Connecticut, Gladys Smith of Mauldin, SC, Hattie Simms, Josephine McBeth and brother, Thomas Reid all of Pacolet, SC, nine sisters-in-law, nine Brothers-in-law and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.
