

Bishop Robert H. Russ

May 22, 1933 - February 16, 2016

BISHOP ROBERT H. RUSS, 82 years of age, passed on Tuesday, February 16, 2016 at Brinton Woods Health & Rehabilitation Center of Arlington West in Baltimore, Maryland.

Bishop Russ was born May 22, 1933 in Farmington, Delaware to the late Norman and Maggie Russ. He was the youngest of seven children, James, Charlie, Lawrence, Lewis, William and Mary, who preceded him in death.

Bishop Russ was educated in Harrington, Delaware. Bishop Russ professed his life to Christ during his young adult life. He was married to Martha George on July 4, 1953 in Preston, Maryland. He began his ministry in Harrington, Delaware. When the family moved to Baltimore, Maryland, he continued his ministry on Federal Street. He was also gainfully employed at Hevenwood Presbyterian Church and was a loyal employee until he retired. He loved praising God, preaching the Word of God, singing, playing the organ, and “cutting a step” for the Lord. His favorite messages to the congregation were about The Prodigal Son, Five Wives and Five Foolish Virgins, Daniel and the Lion's Den, Psalm 23, and St. John 14.

Bishop Russ was a devoted husband, father, uncle, brother-in-law, and grandfather. He was a loving and caring person who loved to laugh with his family and friends. He would always joke and play checkers with his nieces and nephews and they would say, "That's my Uncle Bobbie". He would always wear a warm smile on his face, and made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone.

Bishop Russ leaves to cherish his memory: wife, Pastor Martha G. Russ; one daughter, Anita Carter; two grandchildren, Curlene and Deeja; four brothers-in-law, Apostle A. George, John George, Oscar Lee George, and David George; four sisters-in-law, Evangelist Ellen George, Madeline George, Cody George and Elizabeth Polk, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
