

Robert Edward Streater, Jr.

November 10, 1942 - April 29, 2016

Our beloved Robert Edward Streater, Jr. was born to the late Ollie Bell Streater and Robert Lee Streater on November 10, 1942. He was called to the heavenly pearly gates on April 29, 2016.

He was educated at Virginia Randolph in Glen Allen, Virginia where he excelled in track and field and was an outstanding basketball player.

Robert dedicated his life early to his Lord and Savior at St. Peter Baptist Church on Mountain Road. Singing in the Male Chorus at the church was his life-long adventure, where he was a dedicated member for over thirty years. Robert realized Christ was the answer to all his success and blessings.

He worked for the City of Richmond for over twenty years as a transportation specialist. Robert retired as a dedicated employee from the City.

Robert was known for being an adamant fisherman where you would find him for most of the summer. He will be greatly remembered for his love of how he spent his summers. He had a loving, private, forgiving spirit that loved his family. Robert will be missed by all who loved him.

He leaves to cherish his memories four children, Robert Streater III, Lynette Henderson-Streater (Jeffrey), Duchess Lee and David Streater; ten grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Dad you are free now. There is no more pain no more hurt no more tireless days. I have watched you catch your last fish and listened to you sing your last song. The sun is shining for you now everyday. Rest daddy you have run a great race and now you have your wings and all your rewards. Letting you go is one of the hardest things for me to do. I love you save a seat for me.

“ He was a fighter in this battle. Never complain just kept it moving. The word Amen means so be it or it is done. When we close our prayers in this way we are inadvertently agreeing with God's will, Let it be done. (Rev. 22:20,21). Rest in peace Amen.

“ To the family of Robert Streater Jr. I am sorry to read about the loss of your loved one. The pain is tremendous even with the passage of time. There are scriptures in the Bible to help provide relief of grief and distress. Please read Ps 65:2 that reads "The Hearer of prayers a source of comfort in times of grief and distress.
