

Robert Stuart Taylor,

November 17, 1938 - April 28, 2009

God knew that he was tired and the hills got hard to climb, so he closed his eyes with gentleness and whispered peace be with thine. Robert Stuart Taylor, Sr. departed this life at Chippenham Hospital Hospital on April 28th, 2009 after a lengthy illness. He was born on November 17, 1938 in Richmond, Virginia to Samuel and Grace Taylor. He attended both Richmond Public and Catholic Schools. He received Christ at an early age. He was multi-talented and held various jobs including construction, produce and working for Deep Water Terminal. He had a passion for dressing and had lots of style and class. He was an excellent cook and loved music and watching wrestling. He was a people person and very family oriented. Also, he had many friends. He cherished his mother, father, wife, children and grandchildren. He had a way with words "Miss a meal, skip a meal and eat oatmeal". He will be greatly missed but his memory will be cherished forever. He leaves to cherish his memory his wife Velma Taylor, former wife Eloise A. Taylor-Mason (Sang), children; devoted Anita R. “ I send my warm condolences to the family of Robert. May the holy spirit and the kindness of our God be with you to guide you through these trying times. Robert is now asleep in God's memory, but one day he will be awakened from the sleep of death, because John 5:28,29 lets us know that they will hear Jesus's voice and come out of the memorial tombs. May you be comforted by the hope of the ressurection, and may the memory of Robert live on in your hearts forever.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
