

Robert Lee Tillman

August 10, 1942 - August 18, 2010

PSALM 139:13, “Your eyes saw my unformed body, all the days ordained for me were written in your book before one of them came to be.”

Sixty-eight years ago on August 10, 1942, a deep fisherman, ROBERT LEE TILLMAN, was born in Great Falls, South Carolina, to the late Robert and Lonnie Tillman.

To distinguish him from his father he was called by his middle name, “Lee,” unless his mother was getting ready to take him to task for some of his youthful mischievous deeds; then he was “Robert LEEEE.”

Through-out his 68 years, Lee’s rods of living were hooked with baits of love, kindness and quiet strength. A brief account of the life of Lee can be summed up in every letter of the word “FISHERMAN.”

For he was... As to Lee’s salvation, the Scripture says:

“Paul planned, Apollos watered and God gives the incese”
I Corinthians 3:6. Seeds were planted and watered by verbal conversations, intercessory prayed and the daily lifestyle of his wife, family members and friends. Since God is the one who gives the increase we will leave his acceptance or non- acceptance of Jesus Christ as Savior, in the hands of God.

Although cancer claimed his body, our prayers is that God has claimed his Soul.

Psalm 139b, "When I awake I am still with you."

Death was swallowed up in victory on Thursday, August 18,2010.

His memory will forever be hooked in the hearts of his wife, Hazel; two sons, Bernard (Dawnella), and Rodney; two grandsons, Nathaniel and Jonathan; one sister, Loretta Espy; three brothers, James, Lewis, and Joseph; one sister-in-law, Evelyn Stone, one bother-in-law, Edward Johnson; nieces, nephews, the Garland family, and other relatives and friends.

“ My heart goes out to the Tillman family during their loss. I been knowing Lee all of my life. It was heartbreaking when I found out he was gone. I thought I would be prepared to deal with it, but i wasn't. I did not go to the funeral in Baltimore, Maryland. I just could not see him laying in that casket. Losing my father 4 years ago was painful enough. Now I am hurting again. Not only Lee was one of my father's best friends, my father lost Lee brother Bob not too long ago. Lee and Bob was my dad best friends. I lost a friend in my heart since i was a little girl. Lee always gave me encouragement in my endeavors in life. Even when my father and I had a fragile relationship at one time, Lee always told me to live my life and things will come in place one day. My friend I am going to miss you. I cannot tell you how much I am going through right now. You always use to tell me to be strong and keep it moving. I am going to try, but it will not be easy. Thanks for the years Mr. Robert Lee Tillman. Constance Garland
