

Robert Webster

November 24, 1942 - June 7, 2003

Robert Webster, Jr. (known affectionately as “Bobby”), son of the late Christine Queen and Robert Webster Sr., was born on November 24, 1942 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He departed this life on June 7, 2003 after a lengthy illness. Bobby was educated at Baltimore City Public Schools. He worked as a Chemical Assistant at the Baltimore City Waste Treatment Plant. On June 4, 1974, Bobby married Doris Young and became a loving, devoted father to her five children. He raised as his own son, Kenneth Minor. Bobby was also a devoted brother. Bobby will always be remembered as a warm, quiet-spirited person with a beautiful smile. He was very unselfish and giving. He loved to cook, read, and always encouraged those he loved to get a good education. Those left with cherished memories of Bobby are his wife, Doris Webster; four daughters, Trenita Dorsey, Ann Dunaway, Darcel Williams, and Lesia Taylor; twelve grandchildren, and five great-grandchildren; his sister, Jonette Jackson; and a host of nieces, nephews, and friends. Bobby will be forever missed and loved.
