

Robert White

November 16, 1926 - October 27, 2007

ROBERT WHITE, son of the late Charlie White and Louanne King, was born on November 16, 1926 in Carthage, Texas. He was raised in a Christian home. He received his education in the public schools in Texas. Upon graduation he went into the U.S. Air Force after which he was honorably discharged. He resided in Tampa, Florida a few years and then came to Baltimore, Maryland where he met his wife, Cora Price. They were married on October 12, 1963. Robert was a very knowledgeable man. Don't ask a question and think he didn't have the answer or where he could find it. He was a three hundred bowler. He loved the slots and all type of sports. He was a one-time member of the Masonic Family, the Elks and Veterans of Foreign Wars. He retired from Greater Baltimore Medical Center after twenty-plus years of service. After a brief illness, he departed this life October 27, 2007. He leaves to cherish his memory: wife, Cora; step-daughter, Charlotte Smith (Sterling); two granddaughters and two great-grands; four sisters all from Texas, Maurine Bland, Gracie England, Burdie Barron and Charsie Black; a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Dear family, I am so sorry for your loss. The pain associated with death can sometimes be so overwhelming, and so hard to come to grips with. Noone wants to lose their loved ones, and Jehovah God does not take pleasure in seeing his children experience so much pain and sorrow. That is why he has purposed to bring an end to sickness, and the enemy death which causes us so much grief. 1stCor.15:26. He never forgets those who have died, and his wonderful purpose is to bring them back to life to be with their loved ones forever in peaceful conditions. John 5:28,29, Rev21:3-5, Acts 24:15, Psalm 37:10,11, and Isaiah 25:8. Please read these scriptures for comfort. One day family, no more sorrow, no more pain.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
