“ My heartfelt condolences to the family for the loss of your loved one. I can identify with your pain, because I have also gone through this painful experience. Losing a loved one is so hard to come to grips with, because we miss their presence in our lives. May your cherished memories of happier days comfort you in the days ahead. Your loved one now rests in God's memory, and one day he promises that the dead will hear Jesus's voice, and they will come back to life. Please hold on to that thought and other comforting scriptures to help you to endure. Rev 21:3-5.

“ We're so sorry to hear of your loss. We're praying that our good LORD will comfort you and give you peace during this time. Hold on to the happy memories that you have of him.

Love,

Mr. Calvin and Mrs. Rita Parnell

“ *Dear Family,
Please accept my sincere condolences on the loss of your loved one. The time will soon come when all who have died will live again. (Daniel 12:2)
May you have the utmost confidence in all that God promises. (Titus 1:2)*

Michelle Washington - September 24, 2017 at 04:07 PM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
