

Robert Scott Williams Sr.

March 18, 1957 - November 23, 2013

“To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die;” — Ecclesiastes 3:1

ROBERT SCOTT WILLIAMS, affectionately known as “Pee-Wee,” was born on March 18, 1957 the son of the late George Lloyd and Margaret A. Westbrook Williams. Pee-Wee took flight to meet with his Lord and Savior Jesus the Christ, who promised him a home in heaven, on November 23, 2013.

Pee-Wee was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. Notwithstanding, there was never a time when he was found without a smile on his face when it came to the love he shared with his only son Robert (Scottie), which was later followed by three beautiful grandchildren; Mykayla, Damien, and Naya.

Wanting to give back to society, he became a passionate advocate and active member of Narcotics Anonymous. He devoted a great amount of his time sponsoring and mentoring many young men and women who sought only for the comfort and compassion of another who could relate to them in their struggles to ward off alcohol and drugs. Pee-Wee’s undying compassion and commitment was due in part because of those giant ambassadors who took the time to extend to him a helping hand. He was proud to announce that he was blessed to celebrate multiple years of being clean and sober. Prior to his passing, Pee-Wee was employed with the Northstar Company where he remained until his health failed him. Pee- Wee enjoyed spending time with those he loved, he will greatly be missed.

Left to cherish special memories are: his wonderful son, Robert Scott Williams Jr. (Shanna); three grandchildren, Mykayla Marie Williams, Damien Scott Williams and Naya Grace Williams, Linda Hall (proud mother of Scottie); siblings, Dorothy Finch (Jack), Lloyd George Williams (d.), Barbara Williams (John Redding), Alan Bruce Williams (d.), Clifton Williams (Daisy), Christine Greene (Tyrone), Valerie Theresa Humphrey (Nedrick) and Adam Troy Williams, all of Baltimore Maryland; a devoted companion, Pamela Smith; and a host of nephews, nieces, uncles, aunts and friends.

“ Our heavenly father never purposed death for mankind. He hates death; describes it as an enemy. Soon He will stop it once and for all (1Corinthians 15:26; Isaiah 28:5) Mankind will live in peace, happiness, and perfect peace (Psalms 37:9-11; Revelations 21: 3, 4 and Isaiah 33:24) May you draw much comfort in the Creator's wonderful promises, and know that soon we will welcome our loved ones back, wrapping our arms around them once again. Hope that knowing this will take away some of your deep sorrow.

“ Our family would like to express condolences to your family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible. He assures us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing." Our prayers are with your family.
