

Roberta Wilson

July 13, 1939 - February 16, 2003

Roberta H. Wilson, daughter of the late William Henry Senior and Loretta Smith Haynie, was born on July 13, 1939 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on February 16, 2003 after a short illness. Roberta received her education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. She graduated from Douglass Senior High School in 1958. She began working as a keypuncher at the Social Security Administration shortly after her graduation. She retired in 2000 after many years of service. She was brought up in the church and attended the New Psalmist Baptist Church in her youth. She was baptized there and sang on the Young Adult Choir. She was an avid sports fan. She loved the Baltimore Orioles (when they were winning), the Baltimore Colts, Dallas Cowboys, and she later adopted the Baltimore Ravens as her favorite team. She also loved to play cards and had a Pinochle group that she played with regularly. Roberta was a devoted mother, wife, sister and friend. She enjoyed cooking and entertaining her family and many friends at her home. Thanksgiving was her favorite family holiday. She planned, shopped, organized and did most of the cooking year after year for this large extended family event. November 2002 Thanksgiving was her best yet. Although she lost her beloved companion of many years, Robert Brown, in January 2002, she leaves to mourn: her son, Gregory Haynie; three brothers, William Henry Junior, Gerald and Paul Haynie; three sisters, Rosalind Bailey, Carolyn Haynie and Linda Powell; three brothers-in-law, four sisters-in-law, nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.
