

Robin Denise Byas

March 17, 1959 - May 2, 2022

Robin Denise Byas, daughter of Joanne Morton and the late Willie Byas Jr. was born on March 17, 1959 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life after a brief illness on May 2, 2022. She was affectionately known to family and friends as Teeny.

Teeny was raised by her paternal grandmother the late Mary Ann Byas in Summerton, South Carolina, where she received her formal education. Teeny accepted Christ as her lord and savior at Saint James AME church in Summerton, South Carolina.

Upon returning to Baltimore she held various positions in the hospitality and manufacturing industries. Teeny had a knack for cleaning. This led to her to build a career in the hospitality field. Teeny also performed residential cleaning jobs for family and friends. She was meticulous and devoted to her tasks. Her home was spotless. You could truly eat off of her floor. Teeny was also a great cook, you haven't lived until you've had a piece of her fried chicken.

Teeny was ordained as the family comedienne, she could make you laugh like no other. She was very humorous and always had something funny to say even during serious situations. Teeny was very outspoken and never had a problem telling you how she felt. Teeny had a sassy but funny comeback for everything. She was the self proclaimed "Grandma Dynamite". To be in her presence was a true pleasure.

Teeny loved music and would keep her radio on Magic 95.9. She loved her oldies but goodies especially Phyllis Hyman, Freddie Jackson and Anita Baker Teeny was very well liked and made friends everywhere she went. She never let any grass grow underneath her feet, she was always on the move. Teeny had a heart of gold. She would feed you, clothe you and give you a place to stay.

Teeny was preceded in death by her father Willie Byas Jr and brother Shawn Anderson.

Teeny leaves to cherish her memory her husband Derle Allen; mother, Joanne Morton; children, Shayla Burnham and Craig Johnson (Fella); grandchildren, Kyran Boothe and Kaiya Prater; siblings, Shenay Andrews, Kimberly Byas (Kenny), Patricia Carter (Melvin), Tracey Morton, Michelle Travers, Jonathan Newsome, Derrick Byas and Darrell Byas; nieces and nephews, Darron, Tinika, Sharnia, Rashaad, Lindsay, Savion, Michael and Joshua. A host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.
