

Robin Christian

July 31, 1965 - June 12, 2003

Robin L. Christian, was born to the late Georgiana dn Gordon Christian on July 31, 1965 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on June 12, 2003 after a lengthy illness. Robin received her education in Baltimore City Public Schools. She was a very outspoken person who would tell you like it was. She was full of life and enjoyed all the things that life had to offer. She loved all types of music, especially when she participated in the Marching groups that performed throughout Baltimore City. Later in life Robin had two daughters Precious and Tammy who meant everything to her. The bond they shared was remarkable, when you saw Robin you saw Precious and Tammy. Robin was the only girl in her family out of six brothers who played an important role in her life as well as her three grandchildren. She tried to be a mother figure to them all. She leaves to mourn: two daughters, Antoinette Davis and Shawnette Christian; three grandchildren, Rayquan Harrison, Qwashay Megginson and Tyania Bethea; four brothers, Roy Royster, Gunner Worthan, Orlando Gaston and Steven Christian; two brothers who preceded her in death, Murphy Worthan and Alfonzo Gaston; four sister-in-laws, Michelle Christian, Andrea Royster, Dorothy Worthan and Beverly Worthan.

“ Mother I am a blossomed woman now...It's been over 20 plus years & lord knows where I would be if I didn't have God by my side..It's like when you left every thing turned sour...Lord knows I had my up & downs in life...I am so sorry you never got to meet none of your grandkids except Qwashay & Mook..I think about you more now that I'm getting older...I had to cut back on a lot of things in life including fake people mother I just can't adapt to that...Me & Precious rarely speak I hope that can change one day.. & I know your shining your light down here on me and the kids dam I wish you could see the twins I had..Ashanti doing good working driving...AJ well that's a whole story lol his fool self & Mello was my last baby he tells everything he know especially to his teachers lol...I know it's a beautiful place up there in them clouds...When I'm up in my room I often look up at the sky and think of you....Well everyone is transitioned now last one to leave us was Roy he died 4 days ago... Now I feel I must carry on this Legacy I'm deeply broken inside but I got to keep pushing...I'm so hurt you died so young I really did have much time with you at all..Life was stingy but God knows best... Love You Forever & Ever Ever Ever Ever Til We Meet Again 🥺
