

Robin Allen Fields

January 31, 1960 - June 15, 2023

ROBIN (CAMPBELL) ALLEN FIELDS was born on January 31, 1960, in Baltimore, MD at Baltimore City Hospital, currently known as John Hopkins Bayview Medical Center. She was the daughter of the late Horace and Ada (Rose) Campbell. God made the call, and Robin answered June 15, 2023.

Robin attended and graduated from Northern Senior High School. After high school, she would go on to attend nursing school. She would then graduate and become a Registered Nurse at Alice Manor Nursing Home, and briefly at The American Red Cross. When she moved on from her nursing career, she held various Supervisor positions in many different fields of work. She also later in life pursued a career in Criminal Justice Law at Baltimore City Community College as a paralegal.

Once she retired, she found joy and happiness intending to her garden and being a devoted mother, grandmother. She was a dedicated community activist. Whenever a neighbor was in need she would always jump to action to help. No matter how big or small, she was always there to help. As a woman of faith, she would always answer the call of those in need and believed in her heart the infamous quote: "Do unto others as you would have them done unto you".

Throughout her life, she has made a lasting impression in many lives. She made many friends, and extended family along the way. People were always drawn to her bright spirit, and the love that she gave to many. She always displayed the color red wherever she went, to show the world two meanings: The blood of Christ, which represented her faith; and the Love that she had in her heart, which was bountiful. She was truly an extraordinary mother, grandmother, daughter, sister, friend, and child of God.

She is preceded in death by her son: Prince Micheal Allen, daughter: Princess Rose Frazier, and husband: Julius William Fields.

Robin leaves to cherish her many loving memories her daughter: Crystal Rose Frazier; two sons: Christopher Princeton Fields, Calvin Gabriel Fields; two granddaughters: Malaika Fatima James, Savannah Adrienne Johnson; her sister: Delores Davis; three brothers: Bland Campbell, Paul Campbell, Raymond Campbell; nine nieces; three nephews; an abundance of great-nieces and great-nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I remember the days with cousin Robin when my first two boys in their early younger years with my husband go see her. Robin use to cook up a mean meal in an electric skillet we use to say it looked crazy but it was so good. Loved our talks . So sad for this moment
