

Robin L. Clay

March 4, 1969 - May 18, 2004

On May 18, 2004, God in His infinite wisdom sent His angel down to bring the earthly pilgrimage of Robin Lorraine Clay to an end. She slipped away quietly and peacefully, for God knew that it was time for His unique, cherished child to depart. Robin, daughter of Robert Clay and Phyllis Braswell, was born on March 4, 1968 in Baltimore, Maryland. She received her formal education through the Baltimore City Public School System. At one time Robin was employed at the Children's Hospital and Keysville Nursing Home in Keysville, Georgia. She was an avid lover of music. She had a great admiration for the "New Editions," whom she had an opportunity to chat with on her birthday this year. Robin had a sunshine personality. She believed in faith, prayers and angels that watch over us. She believed that God leads us to higher places where peace, joy and love will be ours forever. We praise You, dear God for Robin Clay, whom you have generously received in Your presence. God gives us everything we have. He gave us Robin Clay and now we give her back to Him. The following poem reflects our heartfelt message for Robin as she slumbers in the bosom of her Heavenly Father: In sadness we saw you sinking, and watched you fade away; Our hearts were almost broken-we wanted you to stay; But when we saw you sleeping, as peaceful, free from pain, How could we wish you back with us to suffer that again! It broke our hearts to lose you, but you did not go alone, For we feel that a part of us went with you the moment God took you home. Grieving but rejoicing in the privilege of having shared her love are: her father, Robert Clay; mother, Phyllis Braswell; one brother, Robert P. Clay; one sister, Cara Clay; stepmother, Pamela Clay; grandfather, Jacob Williams; grandmother, Theola Gaither; a special aunt, Capricia Griffin; a special cousin, Barbara Mills; niece, Nydia Clay; a host of uncles and aunts, one stepsister, Jacqueline Henderson; and other relatives, including her extended families.

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 11:25,26 where Jesus says "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all." May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ To the Family: Please accept my condolences. It can be very hard to cope with the death of a love one. However, may you find comfort from "... the Father of tender mercies... who comforts us all in all our tribulations. 2 Corinthians 1:3,4.
