

Robin Sandy Gregory

December 15, 1959 - May 15, 2005

Robin Gregory, better known as “Candy”, of the late Gloria Stewart-Gregory and Robert Gregory has gone on to Glory to be with our Lord. Candy passed this side of Jordan on May 15, 2005. It is not important to be reminded of what schools Candy went to or what jobs she worked, or even where she lived. However; it is important to be reminded that she was a loving mother and a devoted grandmother. Toneka and Bryant were Candy’s fuel for life. She, her children and grandchildren were inseparable. Bryant, was Candy’s joy. She spoiled him, loved him, and catered to his needs. He in-return honored her with two grandsons, Ja’Cai and Bryant Jr. She loved spending time talking to Bryant and guiding him. Toneka and Candy had a very close mother-daughter relationship, they were best friends; best friends to the end. They shared a lot of secrets, sweet times and hard times together. Toneka was Candy’s final caregiver, Candy’s final moments were spent gazing into her daughter eyes. Toneka honored her mother with three grandchildren, Ra’Kee, Tylar, and Wayne. Candy loved her aunt Pauline “Biggie”. Biggie cared for her like a daughter. Her brothers Bernard and Ronald were very important to her. She enjoyed spending time with them. Candy cherished Wayne Brown as another son. Wayne, Toneka and Candy spent many hours together as a family. Cousins forever, Renee, Michele, Derrick, Tanya, and Andre. This crew of cousins was like sisters and brothers, “best friends forever”. William Jackson “Will”, was a devoted and loving companion. When you saw Candy you saw Will, two peas in a pod. He was by her side to the end. Their love will be everlasting. She leaves to cherish her memory, her devoted children, Toneka and Bryant, five grandchildren, Ra'Kee, Tylar, Ja'Cai, Wayne, and Bryant Jr.; two brothers, Bernard and Ronald Stewart. One special Aunt Pauline, her long time companion Will, Wayne Brown, nieces and nephews, cousins and a host of other relatives and friends.
