“ Please accept my condolences. May you find comfort in the resurrection hope that Jesus talked about at John 11:38-44. Here he resurrected his friend Lazarus showing us how much he loves us. May these verses help to strengthen you as you read them from your bible.##imported-begin##Ms. Howard##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry that you lost your dear Robinette. May God give you the comfort that you need in order to endure your sorrow. Keep this scripture in mind as Jehovah's assurance of his loving care for us. At Isiah 66:13 he promises, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people. One day he promises a world free of sickness, violence, and death; a peaceful and secure world for all of his obedient servants to enjoy. Even the dead will share in these blessings, because God promises that they will come to life again. Daniel 12:2 says that there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." Also Isaiah 26:19 declares: "Your dead ones will live again. "A corpse of mine-they will rise up. "Awake and cry out joyfully, you residents in the dust." Imagine the dead waking up and crying out in gladness at being alive again. This will one day occur for Robinette and millions of others when Jesus brings our loved ones back to life. John 5:25-29, John 11:25. May you be comforted by this wonderful promise.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
