“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences for the loss of Robyn. Losing a loved one is so hard to come to terms with, and I'm really sorry that you experienced such a loss. My heart goes out to you in your sorrow. Turn to the God of all comfort, because he cares for you. 1st Peter 5:7. he hates death and promises: As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing. 1st cor 15:26. People die in so many different ways, but God remembers every detail about them, and in the re-creation they will be the same as we remember them. Wherever people died or in whatever situation God remembers them. Rev 20 verse 13 says: And the sea gave up those dead in it, and death and Hades gave up those dead in them, and they were judged individually according to their deeds. Verse 12 says: And I saw the dead, the great and the small, standing before the throne, and scrolls were opened. But another scroll was opened. It is the scroll of life. And the dead were judged out of those things written in the scrolls according to their deeds. So these scriptures give us reassurance that all of our dead loved ones will come back to life. Yes, they will hear the voice of the Son of God and will come out of the memorial tombs. John 5:28,29 May these promises give you much hope and strengthen you to endure until Robyn awakes once again.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
