“ My brother would tell you, he had a great life. He lived it his way, serving his country courageously, learning and perfecting many skills along the way. He enjoyed life's pleasures with his wife, Carolyn at his side. I have so many wonderful memories of my big brother who seemed to have an answer for every situation. I will forever love and cherish in my heart, the strongest yet gentlest man I've ever known.

Love, Johnnie (Cookie)

“ Dearest Carolyn & family, how sad to hear that Chester had passed, but his work is finally done here. May you all find strength and comfort during this time through the grace of Our Lord. Know that you are not alone in your grief, that others care. Chester was always gracious and helpful to me and others through the years whenever we sang with the MLWaker Alumni Gospel Choir or visited your home. He had a sense of humor that kept you in stitches and set the tone for a good time with him. Chester was supportive whenever needed and as he saw the need...he was a giving man. This is how I will remember him! RIP, Chester, you earned it.
