“ I would like to express my condolences to Mr. Haywood's family and friends. The loss of a loved one can be painful and difficult to bear, that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. Also, the resurrection hope is expressed at Daniel 12:2, which states,"many asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. May your cherished memories and the truth found in God's Word comfort your heart.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the Haywood family. Losing a loved one is so hard to come to terms with. We miss them so very much. Jehovah God knows the pain you are going through, and he promises to be there for us and comfort us during such sorrowful times. At Isaiah 66:13 he promises, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people." It was never God's desire for us to die, and one day he is going to destroy this enemy, which brings us so much pain. 1st Cor 15:26. Our loved ones will never be forgotten. They are in his memory, and the bible promises that all those who are in those memorial tombs will hear Jesus's voice and come out; those who practiced good things to a resurrection of life. John 5:28,29 May that wonderful promise strengthen you in the days ahead; remember the good times you shared with Rock as you await the day when you can be reunited with him again.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
