

Roderick DuBois

July 26, 1956 - October 20, 2004

Roderick (Ricky) DuBois son of the late James DuBois and Ethel DuBois, was born on July 26, 1956. He departed this life on October 20, 2004. He received his education at Douglass High School in Baltimore, Maryland. For many years, he served as a security guard at the Social Security Administration main headquarters. He was responsible for directing traffic at the busiest intersection. His remarkable skills and abilities caught the attention of many of the top officials, as well as employees. Because of his enthusiasm and skills at keeping traffic flowing smoothly, he was honored with an article in the monthly newsletter. He brought smiles to everyone that he came in contact with on a daily basis. His infectious laugh and spirit touched all. In 1986 he received his certificate for computer technology at the Control Data Institute. He took that certificate and went to work for Comus Restaurant Systems. He brought laughter to many of the clients that he serviced. He leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Ethel DuBois; two daughters, Brandi Boone (Derrod) and Tiffany DuBois; son, Roderick DuBois Jr.; five grandchildren, Destiny, Brittany, Joshua, Trinity and Zakeya; five brothers, James, Elton (Martha), Robert, Andrew, and Eric (Karen); his nephews, Elton Jr., Little Eric and Brandon; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Roderick DuBois

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Roderick DuBois

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ To The Family: I am sorry for your great loss. But, the Bible gives us a hope that no man can. John 5:28,29 is about a time when "all those in their memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". You have the chance to see Ricky again! The Bible also speaks about a time of no sickness. (Isaiah 33:24). Now we must wait on Jehovah God and do his will.##imported-begin##Kendra A.##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM