

Rodney Johnson

March 31, 1938 - March 29, 2005

Rodney Norwood Johnson, the second child born to the late Frank Gibson and Jeannette Johnson, slipped quietly away to his eternal home to be with his personal savior Jesus Christ on March 29, 2005. Rodney was born on March 31, 1938 in Baltimore, Maryland. He received his education in Baltimore City Public Schools. Rodney worked many years for The City of Baltimore and retired after 30 years of dedicated service. Rodney had a strong passion for fishing, pool, hunting, old school music and playing pinochle and believed he and his wife were the best pinochle players in the world. He was very competitive in all games and sports and anyone who knew him would laugh and say yes. Rodney had a million-dollar smile, and the great ability to converse, which won the hearts of many. Early in his life, Rodney accepted Jesus Christ as his personal Savior, and in 2004 Rodney re-dedicated his life to Christ and was baptized and became a member of Annistown Road Baptist Church in Snellville, Georgia. Rodney Norwood Johnson leaves to cherish his memory and celebrate his life: his wife, Mabel Beatrice Johnson; three children, George, Darcell and Noreen Johnson; six step-children, Cecelia White, Joseph White, Jr., Donald White, Rhonda White, Carnett White, Shyrinea White and Lynn Ray; two brothers, Walter Johnson and Terry Johnson; two sisters, Betty Purnell and Pamela Queens; 25 grandchildren, 5 great grand-children, and a host of nieces, nephews and many other family and friends and a special niece Muriel Alston.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Dear Family and Friends, Please accept my condolences on the passing of your loved one. At times like this comfort is needed more than ever. Please find comfort in the scriptures. Malachi 3:16 states that Almighty God has a book of remembrance. He also promises that when he opens that book those that are in it will be brought back to life (John 5:28,29) and will never die again. Please let these scriptures comfort you in your time of need.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, It is truly unfortunate that you must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of a loved one. May you find comfort now and in the days to come from the hope of a resurrection, expressed at Acts 24:15.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
