“ it is so sad that we all have to experience the sorrow of losing a loved one. I hope you can find comfort in a scripture found at Rev 21:4... "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." My sincere condolences to the family##imported-begin##Debi##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To family and friends: Please accept my condolences on the loss of your dear loved one. I want to share a very comforting promise with you from God's Word. It is found at Daniel 12:2- "And there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up, these to indefinitely lasting life." May this promise strengthen you in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To the Family, My condolences on the passing of your loved one. Please find comfort in Isaiah 26:19 which states, “Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine—they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, YOU residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of mallows, and the earth itself will let even those impotent in death drop [in birth]”. What a wonderful hope the Bible holds out, we CAN and WILL see our loved ones again. Please keep this scripture in mind especially when you find yourself missing your loved one.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ I am sorry to hear of your loss. The Bible can be a wonderful comfort to us all. Revelation 21: 3,4, Jehovah God says that he is going to wipe the tears from all of our eyes and death will be no more. May your family find comfort from this scripture.##imported-begin##Yolanda Johnson##imported-end##

“ Dear family & friends, I would like to offer my deepest sympathy for your great loss. I thought of a comforting scripture that I hope will help you at this difficult time. At Isaiah 33:24 it reads: And no resident will say, "I am sick." Imagine sickness being a thing of the pass. Well, we have Almighty God's word and we can have complete trust in this promise. My prayers are with your family.##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends of Rodney Yelity, I would like to extend my deepest sympathy for your loss. It truly is hard to watch a sick loved one. But God Almighty has made us a promise at Revalations 21:3, 4 that there will come a time when "death will be no more, nor mourning, nor outcry or pain be anymore...". I sincerely hope that you can find hope in these promises.##imported-begin##Viktoria Waith##imported-end##
