“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

To the family

I was very sorry to read your son Rodney, fell asleep in death it will be particularly hard for you dear mother and difficult for the bereaved father as well. Don't be afraid to cry shedding tears of grief appears to be a necessary part of the healing process. You may find that for a time your emotions will be somewhat unpredictable tears may flow without much advance warning be patient with yourself. when we lose someone we love the loss seems too great to bear. However Jesus gave his own perfect life as the basis for removing from mankind the curse of imperfection, sickness and death. A comforting thought that I found in the bible says, Soon God will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away...Revelation 21:4

I hope it will give the family comfort too my deepest sympathy to the family.

Please accept my sympathy. My prayers goes out to the parents and the family members. God really does care. God gives us that promise. That those who have falling a sleep in death (John 5: 28,29) it will be a resurrection of all those in the memorial tombs. What a wonderful hope for all mankind.
