

Roger A. Clay

September 17, 1930 - September 5, 2002

Roger Adolph Clay, son of the late James H. and Marie M. Clay, was born on September 17, 1930 in Baltimore, Md. He departed this life on September 5, 2002, at the Union Memorial Hospital, following a brief illness. Roger grew up in Baltimore and attended public schools. As a young man, he held various jobs around town. Later, he helped care for his aging parents and helped maintain their home in East Baltimore. Roger moved to the Brentwood Senior Adult Apartments in 1995. Roger was a kind and caring man, content with a simple way of life. He loved his family and carried pictures of them in his wallet. He especially enjoyed playing with his young nieces and nephews, who would visit the family home. He enjoyed tending the garden and the beautiful roses in backyard, and building model airplanes, repairing small appliances, reading magazines, and fixing pancakes. Roger leaves to mourn: two sisters, Blaine Hairston and Barbara Clay; two brothers, Donald and Larry; three sisters-in-law, nieces, nephews and many other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Roger A. Clay

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ He healeth the broken hearted...Psalm 147:3 Sometimes words just are not enough to take away our grief, so we rely on God for help and strength in our belief. May He uplift you greatly, take the sorrow that you bear, than comfort you with healing in the safety of His care... May God's love comfort you at this difficult time.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM