“ Today would have made 46 years of us being married and a total of 49 years all together. I could not let the day pass without acknowledging that what God joined together no one could separate. I still see the smile and the soft voice. Miss you more than you know, however, God a purpose of his own to call you home. Until we meet again, rest on Roger.

“ The joy of being a child of the King has helped me understand your moving to the heavenly realm where you are rejoicing each and everyday in a new body. A body that has no pain and there is definitely no more suffering. I thank God for allowing me to remember more of the good times we shared and that makes these three years without you a little easier. Even though your physical body is not here, memories of you will linger forever without my heart.

“ Two years have gone by and it seems like yesterday that I was sitting and laughing with you at Alternative Adult Care Center. Years, months, days, hours, minutes and seconds have all gone by and it still hurts not to have you here to care for. It was a journey but one that I grew from. Forever in my heart. Wife, Freda

“ To the family of Mr. Lewis:

May the memories of Mr. Lewis help to ease your pain of sorrow. Please remember the avenue of prayer. Psalms 55:22 brings out; " Throw your burden upon the LORD & he will sustain you". I will keep your family in my thoughts & prayers, also.

“ I want to express my sorrow over the loss of your loved one. Losing a loved one is something we all wish we never had to go through. Thankfully, within his word the Bible, God promises us that soon "death will be no more". He also gives us the hope of seeing our loved ones who have already fallen asleep in death (Revelation 21:3-4, John 5:28,29). Again I am extending my sincere condolences to the family.

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
