

Roger R. Evans

April 28, 1957 - May 31, 2008

ROGER R. EVANS, son of the late David Lee Evans, Sr. and Loretta Evans was born on April 28, 1957 in Baltimore, Maryland. He suddenly departed this life on May 31, 2008. Roger was affectionately called "Reds" and received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. Reds enjoyed traveling, watching movies and listening to music. He also had a passion for eating and cooking, and he made the best gravy. His passion was horses and arabbing. As a youth, his teacher recognized his love of horses and made arrangements for him to go the stables to visit the horses after school. He loved his caps. He had a cap for just about every outfit he wore. Reds was the type of guy, that if you hung around him long enough, you would definitely have a story to tell. When you recall some of his escapades, you will either laugh out loud, smile or just shake your head. Full of love for everyone, is how he could be described. Always ready with a hug or kiss, he had a unique love for children and especially his family. Reds married Greta Carter and grew to love her now-deceased son, Kevin Cooper, as his own. Even though the marriage ended in divorce, he loved Greta and her family, especially her mother, Edith Carter. He leaves to mourn: his mother, Loretta Evans; daughter, LaPray Williams; grandson, Ronnie Jones; three brothers, Byran Hall, David Evans and Michael Grant; four sisters, Patricia Evans, Angela Lambert, Joyce Lambback (Gary, Jr.) and Carol Holmes; along with aunts, uncles, nieces, nephew, cousins, great-nieces, great-nephews, other relatives; also a special childhood friend, Kenneth A. Jackson, as well as many other special friends.
