“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. We never get used to death because death really is our enemy as 1 Corinthians 15:26 reveals. That same verse also reveals that Almighty God will destroy death in his due time. He will make a new world in which there will be no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (Revelation 21:3-5) There is much hope of our dead loved ones being restored to life. Acts 24:15 declares- “..there is going to be a resurrection..” May you receive much solace, support and strength from friends, family and the many loving promises found in the Bible.##imported-begin##S. “ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ To the family, I offer my heartfelt condolences on the death of your loved one. Truly death is our worst enemy. It takes our loved ones away whether young or old. Jehovah God never purposed this to happen to the human race. That is why he promises at 1st Cor:15,26 to bring this enemy death to nothing. Also Isaiah 25:8 lets us know that he will swallow up death forever. Very soon JOhn 5:28,29 tells us that all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out. Yes the dead will be restored back to life in the promised ressurection. May the hope of seeing your loved one again bring you comfort, and help you to cope with your loss.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Hello, I want to take this time and not concentrate so much on the death but, remember Roger for the loving, caring, and funny person he was. He never disrespected, downed, or even turned away from you, even when he disagreed, and for that, the heaven gates opened up and let him in. Those who judged him in life will no longer have to do so. Now, he is watching you as those who were so busy watching him.##imported-begin##s##imported-end##
