

Roland B. Camper

October 15, 1921 - July 12, 2008

ROLAND B. CAMPER, son of the late Brayvard and Roseanne Camper, was born on October 15, 1921 in Cambridge, Maryland. He departed this life on July 12, 2008 after a short illness. He received his education in Cambridge, Maryland then joined the United States Army in 1944. Upon the completion of his military service, he was employed at Domino Sugar Refinery for forty-one years. He married the late Sadie Mae McCaster in October 1943, and out of this union two children were born, Shelia Yvonne and Angelia Romain Camper. Roland spent many summer days on his front porch listening to his favorite team, The Baltimore Orioles, waving to the neighbors as they went by. On the days there were no baseball games, he could be found watching his favorite Westerns. He was a great family man with a big heart and a quiet spirit. He will be truly missed by all. He leaves to mourn: his oldest daughter, Shelia Elem; his youngest daughter, Angelia Mills; his sister, Sarah Spicer; his granddaughter, Katrina Brown; his grandson-in-law, Sean Brown; his great-granddaughter, Tori Brown; two sisters-in-law, three brothers-in-law, nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends. He also was the brother of the late Elise Camper.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear Roland. I know how difficult it is to accept that your loved one is no longer here. You have my deepest sympathy. Please keep this wonderful scripture in mind found at Isaiah 25:8 which says: "And he will swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces." Then Acts 24:15 promises that the dead will be ressurected. May you be comforted and strengthened by this wonderful promise from our loving heavenly father.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##
