

Roland A. Logan

March 29, 1942 - June 6, 2021

Roland Augustus Logan, beloved son of Raymond Augustus Brown, and Alice Logan was born on March 29, 1942, in Baltimore, Maryland at Johns Hopkins Hospital.

Roland attended Baltimore City public schools.

At an early age Roland joined 1st Charity Baptist Church on Asquith Street in East Baltimore, where he attended for many years. He accepted Christ at an early age. He loved the Lord.

Roland was a soft-spoken, dependable, and humble man. He worked at Providence Hospital in the Maintenance Department. He had many trades, but his love for horses led him to become an entrepreneur; a vendor selling produce on the streets of Baltimore. During these times Roland met a lot of people and was well known for the fresh vegetables and fruits.

Roland favorite pastime was watching Old Westerns, and he loved all types of sports. He loved his family and his family loved him.

Roland leaves to mourn his loving and devoted sister, Mrs. Clara Myers (Arthur); 2 daughters, Lora and Loreen; and a host of other family and friends.
