

Roland Stanley Hines

December 25, 1925 - April 1, 2004

Roland (Stanley) Hines, son of the late Roland and Mary Hines, was born December 25, 1925 in Mount Winans. He departed this life on April 1, 2004. HE received his education at Baltimore Public Schools. Upon completion of his education, he began serving in the United States Army. He was honorably discharged from the army and began working at Fort Meade, eventually ending up working for the Social Security Administration for 35 years, before retiring in 1986. Roland made numerous friends wherever he went, because he loved to travel whenever the urge struck him. He will be sincerely missed by everyone who came in contact with him. Roland was a true friend, and would help anyone if he could. He leaves to mourn: his sister, Muriel J. Johnson; two nieces, Tamara Armstrong and Muriel J. Smith; special friends, Betty Chaney, Bea Peddy, Barbara and Winnie of Bristol House; and a host of other friends and relatives.
