“ Daddy,

I love you so much. You know I'd do anything for you, including taking your place in the casket. You've taught us to be strong and independent. Thanks to you that I can do mechanical things, lay flooring, paint, and handle financial things. You showed us how a man should treat a woman. I'm going to miss our daily face-timing, and calls. I already miss your corny jokes. This has been a long week. Job well done dad. FLY HIGH AND RIP. Give mom a hug and kiss for me.

Your baby girl Rochelle

“ *Daddy
I am missing you so much. I can't believe I am actually writing this right now 😭😭. Today makes one week that I haven't heard from you or received a video call from you. You fought a great fight and I can I was right there with you.
I hope you know that you are and were loved and now will be missed... Forever your baby girl Rosalyn (twin)*

“ Dad,
I love you more than words could ever say. I hope I showed you just how much love I had for you. You were the first man in my life and you taught me how to be a responsible and independent woman. You and mom had 4 girls and we never wanted or needed for anything. You showed us the value of work and how to stretch a dollar. You always told me you never had to worry about me as you knew you raised me the right way to be able to do anything on my own to include yard work and car repairs. You had no shame telling people how proud you were of me and my family. I will miss your prank calls and you telling Brent you will be out there on the course to play golf. Until I join you and mom, I will continue to make you proud.
Love always,
Your Daughter,
Rolanda Walker
