

Rommell Ahmad Murray

January 3, 1982 - July 27, 2025

Rommell Ahmad Murray was born on January 3, 1982, in Baltimore, Maryland, to Lemuel Murray and Tracey Moore. On July 27, 2025, Rommell peacefully departed this life, leaving behind a legacy of love, laughter, and light that will forever remain in the hearts of those who knew him.

Rommell was educated in Baltimore City Public Schools and later pursued Carpentry through Job Corps. From a young age, he was active and full of life; playing little league basketball, junior league football, and spending countless hours captivated by his passion for WWF wrestling. He had a love for kids and enjoyed walking almost anywhere. His love for music was unmatched. Known affectionately as "D.J. Romm," he often created tapes for his family and friends, sharing joy through sound.

A man of creativity and vision, Rommell was working on a book under his pen name "Ahmad" at the time of his passing. He was a deep thinker, a free spirit, and a soul who gave of himself endlessly. Those who were blessed to know him experienced his love not only in words, but through his actions, his protection, and his devotion. Respectful, kind-hearted, and selfless, Rommell lived with a rare sincerity that touched all who crossed his path.

Rommell was preceded in death by his beloved mother, Tracey Moore; his sister, Brittany Campbell; his grandmothers, Ms. Mattie Murray and Mrs. Mary

Moore; and his uncle, Melvin Moore.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his father, Mr. Lemuel Murray (Latitia); his brother, Devin Lemuel Murray; his sisters, Jasmine Campbell and Rayne Wilson; his uncle, John Murray (Gwendolyn); his great-aunt, Paulette Moore; his aunt, Dora Williams; his "bonus sister," Cierra Davis; his devoted cousin, Lynetris Williams (Ne-Ne); four nieces, one nephew, and a host of extended family and lifelong friends who will continue to celebrate the gift of his life.

Though Rommell's earthly journey has ended, his spirit remains eternal, deeply cherished, forever remembered, and always loved.
